TRIP DETAIL:

07:30 or 08:30: Our knowledgeable tour guide and private vehicle will pick you up at the Port Exit Gate.

To meet our guide, please step out the exit gate. He'll have a sign in his hand that says your name. The distance from the tender pier is 100 meters.

Take an exploration excursion to Marble Mountain, a collection of five limestone hills located around eight kilometers south of Da Nang, to start your day. Admire the pagodas, temples, and secret tunnels here.

Proceed with the tour and pay homage to the priceless relics of the Cham people, a once-thriving ethnic group in central and southern Vietnam, at the Cham Sculpture Museum. Later, savor Vietnamese food and delicacies from Danang for lunch at a nearby restaurant. Before the afternoon excursion in the vibrant metropolis, take a short rest.

Visits to Han Market, the busiest market in Da Nang, will round up the itinerary. Discover the daily activities of the residents, strike up a conversation with amiable people, and pick up some locally made trinkets for your loved ones here.

Following fascinating market experiences, we will go to the Son Tra Peninsula and visit Linh Ung Bai But Pagoda, the biggest of the three Linh Ung Pagodas in Danang, to discover more about the spiritual life of the locals. With panoramic views, the entire city is visible from the top of the mountain. After that, leave the city and return to Tien Sa Port in time for the ship to depart.
